The story about Major

Designed by Lukas Dahlén

In the big city regions people tend to live in smaller spaces. Restaurants and bars get more crowded and we all need a flexible surrounding adapted to the needs we meet at the moment.

The foldable hallstand Major can ease one mundane problem by giving the opportunity to take care of one's clothes when needed and to be efficiently stored when not needed. For the hallway, the bedroom, at the restaurant among the tables, at the bar or in the lobby.
